

State-of-the-art armoured vehicle fleet supported under new contract

Thousands of UK military land vehicles will be maintained under a new £71 million contract, supporting the government's growth mission by creating hundreds of jobs.