

Statement by Department of Justice

In response to a source quoted today (August 7) as someone saying that the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) has proposed to establish a so-called "independent prosecution committee", the Secretary for Justice and the DPP confirm that the report is totally unfounded and they are deeply disappointed over it.