

Statement from the International Contact Group of senior officials and Special Envoys to the Great Lakes

Following their meeting in London on 8 November 2023, The International Contact Group for the Great Lakes, under the UK chairmanship, released a statement on the current situation in the Great Lakes region.