

Statement on the security of elected representatives

The Security Minister, Tom Tugendhat, on the security of elected representatives and additional funding to protect the democratic process.