

Statutory guidance: Processed animal protein (not for human consumption) – Import Information Notes

Statutory guidance for vets, importers and border control officials when importing processed animal protein that is not for human consumption to Great Britain.