

Stay safe around rivers: warning as lockdown eased and temperatures soar

The Environment Agency is urging the public to stay vigilant to hazards in and around waterways