

STL to visit Singapore

The Secretary for Transport and Logistics, Mr Lam Sai-hung, will leave for Singapore tomorrow afternoon (January 29) for a duty visit.

Mr Lam will pay visits to the local transport and logistics facilities, including ports, Singapore Liquefied Natural Gas Terminal and Changi Airport, to learn about their operations. He will also have a tour to the Intelligent Transport Systems Centre and meet with Singapore officials and trade representatives to make exchanges on relevant issues.

Mr Lam will return to Hong Kong on Thursday (February 1). During his absence, the Under Secretary for Transport and Logistics, Mr Liu Chun-san, will be the Acting Secretary for Transport and Logistics.
