

Strategic Command bursaries for 100 students in the North West

A level and T level students from across four educational institutions in Lancashire gathered for kick off event.