

Strengthened Football Governance Bill launched to protect clubs and support fans

The Government will take its first step to address the significant issues facing the financial sustainability of elite men's football in England with the introduction of a strengthened Football Governance Bill in the House o...