

Student president welcomes free sanitary provision

The president of the SRUC student body has welcomed the Scottish Government's decision to make sanitary products freely available to pupils, students and learners across the country.