

Students look to the future at careers event

More than 400 students visited SRUC's annual careers event at Elmwood this month to explore opportunities with around 50 organisations.