

Sunderland residents set to benefit from new homes after fresh investment supports city centre regeneration plans

Homes England provide a £4.8 million grant to drive progress at West Park thanks to growing partnership.