

Super-complaints regime for Service Policing – application window extended until October 2023

The Ministry of Defence (MOD) has extended the application window for organisations to apply for designation as a Service Police Super-Complaint body.