

Supporting growth through regulatory reform: response from Environment Agency CEO to the Prime Minister

A response from Philip Duffy, Chief Executive of the Environment Agency to the Prime Minister on a new approach to regulators and regulations to support economic growth.