

Supporting the training of guardians for unaccompanied children

The training manual will be developed using the guidance set in the FRA's and the European Commission's Handbook on Guardianship for children deprived of parental care, as well as principles in the UN's child rights convention and EU law. For its development, FRA will closely cooperate with the European Network of Guardianship, formed by representatives from different Member States.