

Surge testing to be deployed in Wandsworth and Lambeth

NHS Test and Trace is providing additional testing across parts of South London where the variant first identified in South Africa has been found.