

Susannah Hancock to review girls' placements in youth custody

Susannah Hancock will carry out an independent review of the placement of girls in the children and young people's secure estate.