

Suspected case tests negative for Ebola virus

The Centre for Health Protection (CHP) of the Department of Health today (October 6) reported that regarding the suspected case of Ebola virus disease announced last Friday (October 4), the CHP has conducted a repeat blood test for the patient, and the blood specimen was negative for Ebola virus upon laboratory testing.