

Suspended prison sentences for brothers who illegally stored waste at Shropshire site

The Environment Agency has successfully prosecuted two men who stored more than 26,000 cubic metres of waste illegally at a site on land next to the M54 motorway.