

Suspension of postal services to Macao

Hongkong Post announced today (July 18) that, in view of the development of the local epidemic situation and the associated control measures in Macao, all postal services to Macao will be suspended with immediate effect until further notice.

Members of the public may visit the web page of Hongkong Post at www.hongkongpost.hk/en/about_us/whats_new/notices/index_id_1233.html on the service availability for overseas destinations.
