

Tai Kok Tsui Swimming Pool reopened

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible and repeat it at regular intervals:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (July 7) that Tai Kok Tsui Swimming Pool in Yau Tsim Mong District, closed earlier due to power failure, has been reopened.

Temporary closure of Tai Kok Tsui Swimming Pool

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible and repeat it at regular intervals:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (July 7) that due to power failure, Tai Kok Tsui Swimming Pool in Yau Tsim Mong District has been temporarily closed until further notice.

Liquor Licensing Board to meet on Tuesday

The following is issued on behalf of the Liquor Licensing Board:

The Liquor Licensing Board will meet on Tuesday (July 9) to consider an application for renewal of a liquor licence.

The application is:

New Territories:

"Hei Hei Kitchen" in Tai Po

The meeting will be held at 9.45am in the conference room, Room 102, 1/F, 258 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai. Members of the public are welcome to attend.

A virtual tour of Chinese medicines

In a significant leap forward in the world of Chinese medicine, the Department of Health introduces the Digital Herbarium for Chinese Medicines, an online platform that offers a virtual tour of the Chinese Medicines Herbarium.

News.gov.hk spoke with Assistant Director of Health (Chinese Medicine) Dr Edmund Fong who shared highlights of the website's features. The department also explained the facilities of the Government Chinese Medicines Testing Institute's permanent building, which is expected to be commissioned in phases starting from the end of 2025.

The story is available at www.news.gov.hk/eng/feature today (July 7) in text and video format.

Red flag hoisted at Big Wave Bay Beach

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (July 7) that due to big waves, the red flag has been hoisted at Big Wave Bay Beach in Southern District, Hong Kong Island. Beachgoers are advised not to swim at the beach.