Fatal traffic accident in Tsim Sha Tsui

Police are investigating a fatal traffic accident in Tsim Sha Tsui in the small hours today (June 3) in which a 56-year-old man died.

At about 4am, a taxi driven by a 41-year-old man and the 56-year-old cyclist were travelling along Canton Road towards Yau Ma Tei. When approaching near Austin Road, the two vehicles reportedly collided.

Sustaining serious head injuries, the 56-year-old cyclist was rushed to Queen Elizabeth Hospital in unconscious state and was certified dead at 4.45am.

The taxi driver was arrested for dangerous driving causing death and is being detained for further enquiries.

Investigation by the Special Investigation Team of Traffic, Kowloon West is underway.

Anyone who witnessed the accident or has any information to offer is urged to contact the investigating officers on 3661 9000 or 3661 9058.

Special traffic arrangements for race meeting in Sha Tin

Police advise motorists that special traffic arrangements will be implemented in Sha Tin to facilitate the race meeting today (June 3).

The arrangements will come into effect two hours before the start of the first race and will last until the crowds have dispersed after the race meeting.

Appropriate traffic signs will be put up and police will be on hand to guide motorists.

The Police also appeal to people going to Sha Tin Racecourse for the race meeting and to Happy Valley Racecourse for cross betting to make maximum use of public transport.

Parking spaces at the two racecourses are available only to holders of appropriate permits issued by Hong Kong Jockey Club and any vehicles illegally parked will be towed away.

Bird watching soars to new heights

Amid the hustle and bustle of city life, bird watching is a relaxing and enjoyable experience for all ages.

The Hong Kong Bird Watching Society is dedicated to raising conservation awareness for feathered species and promotes the joy of observing birds to local residents and tourists.

The society's elderly volunteer group, the Crested Bulbul Club, organises regular activities.

News.gov.hk interviewed club members about incorporating innovative ideas and specialised training to diversify bird watching guide services.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (June 3) in text and video format.
