

Form: Natural England's nutrient mitigation scheme for developers

Apply to buy nutrient mitigation credits from Natural England to offset nutrient pollution from housing development.

Press release: Government announces first steps to reform water sector

Environment Secretary Steve Reed has announced a series of initial steps towards ending the crisis in the water sector.

Press release: Government announces first steps to reform water sector

Environment Secretary Steve Reed has announced a series of initial steps towards ending the crisis in the water sector.

Press release: Government announces first steps to reform water sector

Environment Secretary Steve Reed has announced a series of initial steps towards ending the crisis in the water sector.

Transparency data: Defra: spending over £25,000, April 2024

Reports on departmental spending over £25,000.