An Invitation from Friends of Wighton

From Sheena Wellington :

At the Wighton Centre, Central Library this Saturday – 26th November – at 11am.

Chloe Matharu, singer, songwriter, harpist, sailor

Chloe Matharu is a singer songwriter and harpist from the West Coast of Scotland. A Navigational Officer in the Merchant Navy, she offers an authentic voice for the female seafarer in the folk scene. Her ethereal and innovative music gives a glimpse into the modern mariner's life, and is truly unique.

Small Voyages is an eight track album of original songs inspired by Chloe's time at sea as a deck cadet, sailing around the world on oil tankers. The songs are set to an evocative backdrop of Celtic harp music and field recordings of the natural world.

"Her music is truly haunting" – BBC Radio Scotland.

All welcome – Tickets £5 at the door.

Getting things done – Corso Street sheltered lounge – handrail #dundeewestend

Although there is a handrail for tenants to use coming out of the Corso Street sheltered lounge going both north and south from the lounge, residents have highlighted to us that the handrail running south towards Blackness Avenue runs out before you reach the junction with Blackness Avenue.

All there is at the moment is a metal fence with a lot of spikes that is being neither safe or satisfactory for a tenant with mobility difficulties to hold onto.

We raised this problem with the City Council and have received a very helpful and positive response from the Project Officer in the Special Needs Unit :
“I have spoken with our blacksmith and he has advised that he will be able to fit a metal handrail to the existing railings which will improve the accessibility leading from the complex onto Blackness Avenue.”
This has now been undertaken and is a good job well-done – see photos before and after!

Connecting Carers Café #dundeewestend
