

Residents' parking consultation – a reminder #dundeewestend

Just a reminder that the first of two drop-in events to consult residents about a possible residents' parking scheme for part of the West End takes place at Blackness Library tomorrow – all welcome :

Community Engagement - West End Residents Parking Scheme

Help us to gauge the level of interest in a residents' parking scheme in the West End. We want to give you the chance to shape any development, to learn what the local concerns are and to better understand how a residents' parking scheme would work in practice.

Come along to one of our drop in sessions:
Blackness Library
Saturday 7th March 10.30am-12.30pm
Thursday 12th March 6.00pm-8.00pm

Getting things done – Greenbank Place #dundeewestend

Last week, residents drew to my attention to the fact that part of the boundary fence in Greenbank Place had fallen – see photo :

I am grateful to the City Council for responding to my request to have it repaired. This has now taken place.

Ellis O'Connor – Artist's Talk

From the Curator of Museum Services at the University of Dundee :

Ellis's O'Connor's dramatic paintings of North Uist currently on show in the Tower Foyer Gallery are the perfect complement to all this stormy weather!

On Friday 6th March at 6pm, Ellis will be returning to Dundee to give a free talk about her work and about the extraordinary places she has visited on artist's residencies, including Iceland, Norway and the Svalbard Archipelago.

Ellis's talk, Drawing North, will take place in the D'Arcy Thompson Zoology Museum, Carnelley Building. Please enter by the main front entrance of the building. Refreshments will be served after the talk. Admission is free but it would be helpful if you could book a place here.

Friends of Wighton event

From Sheena Wellington :

Wighton Heritage Centre, Central Library – Wednesday 4th March – 1.15pm – 1.45pm Lesley Ann McLuckie, singer

Singer Lesley Ann McLuckie is one of the hidden gems of the Scottish music scene. Though she has always loved traditional song, work and family commitments curtailed her involvement until a meeting with Maureen Jelks, through a carers singing group, led to friendship and involvement in the Angus Trad Roots sessions.

She regards the Fisherman's session in Broughty Ferry as her second home and it was there she received the ultimate accolade for a traditional singer – an invitation to sing in 'The Worlds Room' in Edinburgh.

Admission free, donations welcomed.
