From Sheena Wellington of Friends of Wighton :

Wednesday 6th February, 1.15pm – 1.45pm
Lunchtime Recital with SeaTangle

Tom and Kayren Hall, the husband and wife duo who make up SeaTangle, have been involved with music for over fifteen years in the East Neuk of Fife where they play regularly.

They perform a wide range of music which includes traditional Scottish songs and tunes, and a wide variety of other songs gathered along the way.

Tom, a valued member of the Wighton Singers, sings and plays guitar, drawing on a background which includes Sixties pop, amateur operatic shows, and also helping organise and run music sessions in the East Neuk, while Kayren plays fiddle and djembe.

Admission free, donations welcome.

Getting things done – Newhall Gardens #dundeewestend

Residents recently drew to my attention the fact a street sign at the entrance to Newhall Gardens has been knocked over – see photo (right) :

I drew this to the City Council's attention and have now been advised :

"An order has now been raised for the pole to be re-erected."

Getting things done – Greenbank Place #dundeewestend

Residents have complained to me about the state of the roadway in Greenbank Place – see photo (right) :

I took this up with the council's Roads Maintenance Partnership and have received the following helpful feedback :

"An order has been raised for the repair of a number of potholes in Greenbank Place with a timescale for repair of approximately thirty days."
