Farmers were being exploited and oppressed in different ways under Khurki and Teenkathiya systems, says Shri Radha Mohan Singh

The Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare Shri Radha Mohan Singh said that there is no other example in the human civilisation about the war waged by the farmers in a peaceful way against the oppression and injustice of the Britisher under the leadership of Gandhiji. The Minister of Agriculture said it today while addressing a gathering at National Farmer Fair in Champaran. He further said that the innocent, disarmed farmers raised their voice against the atrocities, exploitations, oppression and extortion of the Britishers and forced them to abolish the system through Satyagraha.

EKATMAKTA, SAMATA AND SAMAJIK SAMRASTA GUIDING PRINCIPLE OF GOVERNMENT – SHRI THAAWARCHAND GEHLOT

The Government has undertaken a series of initiatives for social justice and empowerment. Ekataakta, Samata and Samajik Samrasta are the guiding principles in this direction. This was stated by Shri Thaawarchand Gehlot, Union Minister for Social Justice and Empowerment while addressing a Press Conference on “Major Social Welfare Initiatives” to mark the Birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar here today. Shri Ramdas Athawale, Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment was also present.
