On the windswept Ellery Hill, a Borderland aligned with lands upon which the English and Scots transgressed for many a year, the Spring splendour of the enticing sunshine last weekend temporarily overcame the demoralising emissions of political events and medical catastrophes with Nature's power and overwhelming supremacy, showing us all Hope for the future.

Sheltering in a deep footprint of a previously passing Native Bovine were two perfect and peaceful DAISY Blooms – the only Blooms seen over many acres that day.
