

MOD awards places on specialist nuclear technical services framework

The Defence Infrastructure Organisation (DIO) has awarded places on a contract framework to provide specialist nuclear technical services to the Ministry of Defence.

DASA awards £2.3m to develop novel sensor technology

Funding boost for UK-based industry and academia to accelerate innovation

RAF Typhoons begin NATO Air Policing mission in Lithuania

Royal Air Force Typhoon jets will be in Lithuania for the summer, patrolling and protecting NATO airspace.

Defence scientists trial innovation to slash ambulance cleaning time

DASA and Dstl complete rapid coronavirus support work in just 33 days after appeal saw hundreds of responses from industry

Supplier chosen for new defence training agreement

Crown Commercial Service (CCS) has awarded a new commercial agreement to support facilities management for the UK's Defence Training estate.