

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace addresses the NATO Parliamentary Assembly 2019

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace addressed parliamentarians from across the NATO Alliance at the NATO Parliamentary Assembly on Monday 14 October 2019.

First UK fighter jets land onboard HMS Queen Elizabeth

Pictures released by the MOD show UK F-35 Lightning jets landing, taking off and hovering onboard Britain's next generation aircraft carrier, HMS Queen Elizabeth for the first time.

Cayman Islands to establish a new reserve unit with support of the UK military

Defence Minister Mark Lancaster travelled to the Cayman Islands and met with the Governor, and the Premier to agree the first steps in establishing the new unit

DIO awards contract worth £17-million for next phase of work at Bassingbourn Barracks

The Defence Infrastructure Organisation (DIO) has awarded a contract worth

£17-million to Kier Graham Defence Ltd to ready Basingbourn Barracks for the relocation of the British Army's Mission Training and Mobilisation Cent...

Burial of 13 WW1 soldiers brings closure to crowdfunded archaeological project

A burial service on Thursday 10 October brought closure to a crowdfunded archaeological project that discovered 110 previously missing soldiers.