

Quin opens first defence science and technology hub in the North East

New Dstl site in Newcastle will specialise in artificial intelligence and data science and work with regional partners

---

Graves of Five Great War Soldiers Rededicated

The final resting places of five soldiers killed in World War One have been identified, and Services of Re-dedication have taken place at their graves in northern France over the last two days (22 and 23 March).

---

DBS Veterans Customer Satisfaction Results 2021

This report summarises the key findings and results from the Veterans UK Customer Satisfaction Survey 2021.

---

Register now for MOD science and technology summit

Industry and academia invited to free Supercharging Science 2022 networking and engagement event in Wales, as MOD launches ambitious new science programmes.

---

MOD Honours the sacrifice of World War One soldiers during re-dedication services in Ypres

Four soldiers of the Great War have had their graves rededicated in the presence of their family earlier today (Tuesday 22 March 2022).