

Minister for the Armed Forces statement on the UN Peacekeeping Mission in Mali

Minister for the Armed Forces statement in the House of Commons on the UN Peacekeeping Mission in Mali

Hardy Sikh prayer book revived after 100 years to help personnel practice faith in the field

An operations-ready prayer book has been reintroduced for Sikh service personnel, reviving a tradition last seen in the British Indian Army during WW1.

New online Armed Forces compensation service goes live

Veterans UK has launched a new online service for Armed Forces Compensation and War Pension claims.

UK Defence cyber skills to be boosted through industry partnership

Individuals and teams across Defence will be upskilled to confront the latest cyber threats and prove cyber readiness, through a partnership announced today

UK convenes Joint Expeditionary Force ministers in Edinburgh

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace hosted counterparts from the ten Joint Expeditionary Force nations in Edinburgh.