Thousands of service families receive £650-million accommodation boost

New contracts to enhance maintenance and repair services across Service Family Accommodation (SFA) supporting jobs across the UK Defence supply chain over 7 years.

Minister for the Armed Forces IISS climate change speech

Minister for the Armed Forces James Heappey spoke about the implications of climate change on the Armed Forces.

UK signs agreement to support enhancement of Ukrainian naval capabilities

In a trilateral agreement signed onboard HMS Defender, which was in Odesa as part of the Carrier Strike Group deployment, the UK, Ukraine and industry will collaborate to boost Ukraine's naval capabilities.

Stealth jets fight Daesh in first combat missions from HMS Queen Elizabeth

The UK's Carrier Strike Group has joined the fight against Daesh with F-35 jets carrying out their very first combat missions from HMS Queen Elizabeth.

Lord Mayor's Defence and Security Speech - Thursday 10 June 2021

Chief of the General Staff, General Sir Mark Carleton-Smith, delivered the 2021 Annual Defence and Security Lecture at the Mansion House.