

Defence secures largest investment since the Cold War

The Prime Minister has announced the biggest investment in the UK's Armed Forces since the end of the Cold War, confirming an injection of £16.5 billion over four years.

Sir John Manzoni announced as Chair Designate for AWE plc NDPB Board

Following the announcement that the Atomic Weapons Establishment plc will become an Arms-Length Body of the MOD, the Department has decided to appoint Sir John Manzoni as Chair Designate.

Defence Secretary's speech at the Defence Space Conference 2020

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace talks about transforming in the new Space Age.

Winners of International Space Pitch Day revealed

UK & US mark several international firsts for military innovation

Royal Navy warship sails into Arctic Circle for High North operation

HMS Lancaster has completed three days of operations in the High North, marking the second time the Royal Navy has sailed into the Arctic Circle in two months.