

Baroness Goldie addresses 24th Chemical Weapons Demilitarisation Conference

The 24th Chemical Weapons Demilitarisation Conference, hosted by the Ministry of Defence and Defence Science and Technology Laboratory, has concluded today.

UK Armed Forces continue to strengthen interoperability with Finland and Sweden

British troops have taken part in Exercise Vigilant Knife alongside Swedish and Finnish Armed Forces.

Australian submariners to join Royal Navy crews as UK and Australia deepen defence ties through AUKUS pact

Royal Australian Navy crews will train on the newly commissioned HMS Anson and other Astute-Class submarines, the Prime Minister has announced today.

UK donating undersea minehunter drones to help Ukraine clear coastline

Dozens of Ukrainian personnel will be taught to use the autonomous minehunting vehicles by the Royal Navy and our US partners over the coming months

Archaeologists working to learn more before 2,500 year-old Lulworth hill fort is lost to the sea

Military veterans and professional archaeologists from Wessex Archaeology are taking part in a Defence Infrastructure Organisation (DIO) archaeological excavation of an Iron Age hill fort on Lulworth Training Area.