

Building peace and saving lives through government fund

The cross-government Conflict, Stability and Security Fund is delivering programmes in conflict areas to improve UK security.

Iran tanker seizure: UK government response

This page sets out our response to the situation in the Gulf after Iranian forces seized a British-flagged tanker, Stena Impero, in the Strait of Hormuz.

Commemorations for the 50th anniversary of Op Banner announced

Op Banner was the longest continuous deployment of troops in UK Armed Forces history.

UK and Sweden partner on future combat air

The Defence Secretary and her Swedish counterpart have signed a landmark agreement.

Defence Secretary outlines ambitious space programme

At the RAF Air and Space Power conference today, Defence Secretary Penny Mordaunt has outlined an ambitious space programme.