

News story: Universities urged to boost support for armed forces

Two Government Ministers have written to universities calling on them to step up provisions for the forces community and sign up to the Armed Forces Covenant.

News story: Life-saving frontline technology given £5 million boost

The development of the TXA Autoinjector will allow life-saving blood clotting treatment to be given at the push of a button.

News story: UK and India strengthen defence ties with new agreement

The UK is set to strengthen defence ties with India through a renewed Memorandum of Understanding, Defence Minister Stuart Andrew has announced.

News story: Apaches take off for Estonia

Defence Secretary Gavin Williamson bid farewell to Army aviators as they took off for Estonia, where they will be training alongside NATO forces working to reassure our allies and deter our adversaries.

News story: RAF Northolt runway closes as planned for resurfacing

RAF Northolt's runway has closed for 6 months as planned so that resurfacing works can take place.