

Graves of 3 soldiers killed during the Great War are rededicated in Belgium

The graves of 3 soldiers killed at the beginning and the end of the Great War are rededicated in Belgium

International Women's Day 2022

How the Ministry of Defence Police is working to “break the bias”.

New body armour improvements for women in UK Armed Forces

Defence is continuing to improve the experiences of women in the Armed Forces by rolling out updated combat clothing and body armour.

Ministry of Defence Police ACC Dave Long retires

The MDP bids farewell to Assistant Chief Constable Dave Long on his retirement today, after serving for more than 37 years with the force.

Defence Secretary discusses shared security response in face of Russian invasion of Ukraine

Ben Wallace visited Estonia and Denmark this week, meeting counterparts from Joint Expeditionary Force partner nations to provide plans for ongoing support for Ukraine.