

£110m investment for frontline radio communications

A £110 million contract has been awarded to deliver the new Defence Strategic Radio Service (DSRS) to critical military operations.

Prince of Wales' award for ESUAS

East of Scotland Universities Air Squadron (ESUAS) has received The Prince of Wales' Award for The Ulysses Trust Best Expedition.

Chief of the Air Staff – Defence and Security Equipment International speech

Speech by Chief of the Air Staff, Air Chief Marshal Sir Michael Wigston, at the Defence and Security Equipment International event.

Chief of the General Staff – Defence and Security Equipment International speech

Speech by Chief of the General Staff, General Sir Mark Carleton-Smith, at the Defence and Security Equipment International event.

Second Sea Lord – When is a box Not a box? The need to think differently

Speech by Second Sea Lord Vice-Admiral Nicholas Hine at the Defence and Security Equipment International event.