

Justice Minister Naomi Long is extending the Sexual Offences Legal Advisers pilot scheme until March 2025.

Minister Long said: “I introduced this pilot scheme in April 2021 to provide free, independent legal advice and advocacy to adult complainants in serious sexual offence cases, up to the point of trial – since then more than 1,600 people have received free legal advice.

Increase in funded IVF provision

Health Minister Robin Swann has announced that publicly funded IVF treatment will increase to one full cycle for eligible women.

Derry / London Heathrow route secured – Murphy

Economy Minister Conor Murphy has today announced funding to protect the continuation of the flights from the City of Derry Airport (CoDA) to London Heathrow.

O’Dowd announces £320,000 active travel scheme for Shore Road and Main Street, Toomebridge

Infrastructure Minister John O’Dowd has announced that work is to commence on a £320,000 shared footway/cycleway scheme on the Shore Road/Main Street, Toomebridge.

Murphy and Coveney meet to discuss new trading opportunities

Economy Minister Conor Murphy today met with Minister of Enterprise, Trade and Employment Simon Coveney TD at InterTradeIreland's office in Newry.