

New chapter as libraries prepare for re-opening – Hargey

As libraries prepare to re-open from May 24, Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey visited Libraries NI's headquarters in Lisburn to see the services the community will be able to enjoy.

Long receives HMICFRS report into police handling of Bobby Storey funeral

Justice Minister Naomi Long has today received Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary and Fire & Rescue Services (HMICFRS) report, following its thematic inspection into the PSNI's handling of the funeral of Mr Bobby Storey.

Dodds praises innovation, creativity and resilience of Spirit AeroSystems

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has praised the resilience, innovation and creativity of management and staff at Spirit AeroSystems during a visit to the wing factory at the company's Belfast site.

Hargey establishes Culture, Arts & Heritage Recovery Taskforce

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has established a Culture, Arts & Heritage Recovery Taskforce to consider measures to support re-opening and recovery in the short-term as they emerge from the pandemic and to pave the way for a longer term strategy for the culture, arts and heritage sectors.

Mallon encourages the public to get involved in planning

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon is encouraging the public to get involved in planning.