

Economy Minister highlights importance of North West in economic recovery plans

The Economy Minister has highlighted the important role the North West will play in rebuilding the economy during a series of visits in the area.

Ministers welcome opening date for Victims' Payments Scheme

The First Minister and deputy First Minister have welcomed the confirmation of an opening date for the Victims' Payments Scheme.

Apprenticeships offer so many opportunities and can be key part of economic recovery

Now more than ever, apprenticeships provide employers with the skilled workforce they need to be competitive and grow their business.

State of the art facility will transform Stormont days out for families – Murphy

Finance Minister, Conor Murphy today opened a new Changing Places facility enabling people with complex needs to access toilet facilities when visiting Stormont Estate.

Road improvement scheme for Glengoland area, Belfast

A £268,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme for the Glengoland area of Belfast is due to commence on Wednesday 28 April 2021.