

New Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon will focus on creating a sustainable infrastructure for future generations

New Minister for Infrastructure, Nichola Mallon will focus on creating sustainable infrastructure for future generations.

BDG member converts to dairy production

Greyabbey farmer and Business Development Group member Lawrence Bowden has converted the his farm to dairy production and began milking his first cows in the autumn of 2015.

Promised funding must now be delivered – Murphy

Following his appointment as Finance Minister, Conor Murphy has said it's time for the two Governments to deliver the promised financial package.

CAFRE Beef Finishing – Awareness Event 16th January 2020

The efficient production of beef in an environmentally responsible manner continues to be of vital importance to the Northern Ireland industry.

New Assured Skills Academy at NRC offering 20 training places in logistics

The Department for the Economy and Northern Regional College are offering 20 Assured Skills Academy training places for people to train as logistics and transport coordinators.