

The case for reshaping Northern Ireland hospital services remains unanswerable, the Department of Health has emphasised

The Department today issued the first edition of a new newsletter detailing extensive work on the reconfiguration of key hospital services.

Job and apprenticeship opportunities to be seized at major Mid Ulster Job Fair

The Department for Communities, in partnership with Mid Ulster District Council, Network Personnel and Mid Ulster Skills Forum, is hosting a major Job Fair in Cookstown on Wednesday 20th November 2019.

Extension to appointments on the Council for Nature Conservation and the Countryside

The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs has announced the extension to the terms of appointment of the Chair Dr Hilary Kilpatrick and seven members of the Council for Nature Conservation and the Countryside (CNCC).

Government Art Exhibition opens in Hollywood

Hollywood Library will be home to artworks from the Northern Ireland Civil Service and Office of Public Works (OPW), Dublin collections for the next eight weeks.

Appointments to Stranmillis University College Governing Body

The Department for the Economy has announced the appointment of four new governing body members to Stranmillis University College.