

Health Minister visits the Start360 Youth Engagement Service

Minister Robin Swann has visited a youth facility in Ballymena providing information and support that young people need to navigate the challenges of adolescence and early adulthood.

Swann updates on pay award

The Health Minister has said he will accept the recommendations made by pay review bodies but is unable to move forward without an agreed budget.

Devolved Finance Ministers highlight 'significant gaps' in cost of living support

Finance Minister Conor Murphy has joined his counterparts in Wales and Scotland to call for further action to help households and businesses ahead of another increase in energy prices.

DAERA confirms further positive test results for Avian Influenza in wild seabirds

Following on from confirmed positive test results for Avian Influenza (AI) in birds from Rathlin Island; the Department for Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs has confirmed positive results for AI in 1 Gannet and 4 Guillemots from the North Coast (Portrush West Strand and Portballintrea).

Poots calls upon the EU to agree an urgent solution to veterinary medicines movements

Agriculture Minister Edwin Poots, MLA, has reiterated the need for the UK and EU to make urgent progress on the issue of veterinary medicines supply from Great Britain (GB) to Northern Ireland (NI).