

Six FTII Courses get Master's Degree Equivalence

In a significant achievement for Film and Television Institute of India, Pune, the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) has equated six PG Diploma Programmes of the Institute with Master's Degree. The Masters equivalence launches FTII into a new academic orbit and introduces a new dimension for students who can now leverage this attribute for higher studies, in India and abroad.

Shri Nitin Gadkari Holds Meeting with Deputy Prime Minister of Belgium : Seeks Greater Belgian Participation in the Maritime Sector

The Minister of Shipping and Road Transport & Highways Shri Nitin Gadkari met the Deputy Prime Minister of Belgium Mr. Alexander De Croo, in Mumbai yesterday to discuss bilateral issues concerning the maritime sector. Shri Gadkari sought greater participation of Belgian companies in Sagarmala projects

Production and Growth in BHEL

The production targets and corresponding achievements thereto of Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited (BHEL) are captured in

Registration for Kailash Manasarovar

Yatra 2017 Organized by Ministry of External Affairs Commences

Registration for Kailash Manasarovar Yatra organized by Ministry of External Affairs has commenced on 1 February 2017.

Annual Maritime Power Conference – 2017

The National Maritime Foundation (NMF) is conducting its Annual Maritime Power Conference-2017 at the Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses (IDSA) Auditorium, Development Enclave, New Delhi, on 09-10 February 2017