

There's No Place Like Home

The Scottish Home Pony will return to the Scottish National Equestrian Centre in West Lothian in 2019 and 2020.

Professor takes up new Scientific Director role

A well-known researcher at Scotland's Rural College has been named as the new Scientific Director of the Scottish Consortium for Rural Research (SCRR).

Innovative Barony team shortlisted for Scottish Training Federation award

A project team of e-Learning and Veterinary Nursing staff at SRUC's Barony campus has been shortlisted in the "Innovation In Training" category in the Scottish Training Federation (STF) Awards.

'Early bird' Aimee up for national award

An SRUC graduate has been shortlisted for the title of Agricultural Student of the Year at the 2018 British Farming Awards.

Student president welcomes free sanitary provision

The president of the SRUC student body has welcomed the Scottish Government's decision to make sanitary products freely available to pupils, students and learners across the country.