

Caroline relishing new director role

The newly appointed Director of Marketing, Digital and Communications at Scotland's Rural College is relishing the challenge of giving SRUC "a distinctive and powerful voice".

Caroline relishing new SRUC director role

The newly appointed Director of Marketing, Digital and Communications at Scotland's Rural College is relishing the challenge of giving SRUC "a distinctive and powerful voice".

Stemming the tide

'Green engineering' techniques that help to stabilise river banks and halt the erosion of fields are to be showcased at a free event organised by the Scottish Government's Farm Advisory Service (FAS).

Andy honoured with special award

The parents of a popular member of Scotland's Rural College staff who died suddenly last summer attended last week's graduation ceremony to accept a special award posthumously on their son's behalf.

SRUC pays tribute to Andy with special award

The parents of a popular member of Scotland's Rural College staff who died suddenly last summer attended last week's graduation ceremony to accept a special award posthumously on their son's behalf.