

SRUC Postgraduate Research Conference 2018

The annual SRUC Postgraduate Research Conference took place at King's Buildings on 21 and 22 March.

Drawing attention to the straw shortage

Last summer's weather has forced Scottish farmers to pay £50 per tonne more for straw, according to new SRUC research.

SRUC students celebrate awards success

Nine Scotland's Rural College students received recognition at the land-based and aquaculture Learner of the Year Awards.

A whale-sized challenge

Dr Andrew Brownlow, the veterinary pathologist in charge of the Scottish Marine Animal Stranding Scheme (SMASS) at SRUC, has described the post-mortem of a sperm whale as one of his most challenging.

Challenge for Change 100 Days Later

Challenge for Change 100 Days Later was held last Friday, 23 March.