

SRUC helps cocaine fight in Colombia

Researchers from Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) have been awarded more than £122,000 for a project that will help the Colombian government in its war against cocaine farming.

SRUC's royal appointment at Palace

The Principal of Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) this week attended a special investiture at Buckingham Palace to receive SRUC's Queen's Anniversary Prize from Prince Charles.

Royal appointment at Palace

The Principal of Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) this week attended a special investiture at Buckingham Palace to receive SRUC's Queen's Anniversary Prize from Prince Charles.

Post-Brexit trade scenarios Farming at risk

Leaving the single market and customs union poses a serious risk to Scottish farming, an independent study has concluded.

SRUC research explore post-Brexit

trade scenarios

Leaving the single market and customs union poses potential risks to Scottish farming, an SRUC study has concluded.